

We are participants in the New Jersey Do Not Call List. It has transformed out life. We are no longer subjected to the dozens of calls each week that used to interrupt our day, often our family meals, and bring unwanted annoyance into our home. Please do not weaken the legislation and regulations that have created and that govern this list. Thank you.